

Livestream: the new Porsche 911 GT3 RS

17/08/2022 The Porsche 911 GT3 is getting a big brother: Today, the 911 GT3 RS, the new top of the 911 line in terms of performance, is presented to the public. Its digital world premiere will be shown in the Newsroom from 5 pm onwards.

"The new 911 GT3 RS is even more optimised for track use than its predecessors. The spontaneously responsive, high-revving four-litre, six-cylinder boxer engine with approximately 500 PS has proven ideal for use at trackdays and club sport events," says Andreas Preuninger, Director GT Model Line.

"That's why we focused primarily on aerodynamics and chassis questions in the development of the new 911 GT3 RS."

Broadcast today at 5:00 pm (CEST)

The digital world premiere of the new Porsche 911 GT3 RS will be broadcast on newstv.porsche.com today at 5:00 pm (CEST). The video will also be available on demand there after the event.
